Don't miss this opportunity to own one of the rare villa style units at Palermo. Palermo is an exquisite desert modern townhouse community designed by architect Chris Mills. This architectural condominium offers features not found in units costing twice the price. 9' high glass walls including sliding glass doors open onto a private patio from both the bedroom and the living room. The den, with an attached powder room, includes a murphy bed to provide a comfortable space for guests. 12' high ceilings throughout increase the feeling of spaciousness. The chic, modern feel is enhanced by polished concrete floors. Kitchen with granite countertops over fine wood cabinets opens onto the living room. This unit has an attached carport for convenience. HOA is low, and includes a fitness center and two swimming pools. Palermo is gated for privacy and security.
